Plan an Ekka School Excursion Today

Save Money for Your School and Enhance Your Classroom Experience

Ekka has a huge range of FREE educational activities for students of all ages! Providing a unique opportunity, an Ekka excursion is the ideal environment to extend learning across all disciplines.

Ekka tickets are just $11.00 per student and Teachers attend FREE when you book your excursion on an Ekka School Day.*

Whether you are teaching SOSE, Science, Technology, Visual and Performing Arts, Maths or English, a real-world experience at Ekka will reinforce theoretical concepts cultivated in your classroom.

FREE Interactive Activities at Ekka 2010:

- Investigate the Ekka Learning Trail using a workbook packed with activities for students to complete while at Ekka and in the classroom
- Meet a real farmer and learn how to: milk a cow, shear a sheep, taste honey fresh from the hive and groom a horse
- Hold baby animals in the RACQ Insurance Animal Nursery
- See newborn lambs take their first steps at Sunny Queen Little Miracles Newborn Corner
- Listen to live music and see street and stage performers
- Learn how to create amazing Arts and Crafts
- Celebrate the achievements of your students with a visit to Education on Show, where outstanding student work is displayed from winning schools across Queensland

Ekka School Days

*(Prices subject to change) Book your excursion on an Ekka School Day and Ekka admission price for students will be $11.00 each. For every ten (10) paying students, one adult will be allowed free entry to Ekka on the day. On non Ekka School Days standard admission price applies for children (5 – 14 years) $14.00, student concession (14 years and over) $18.00 and Teachers are charged adult ticket price of $24.00. The RNA encourages students with special needs to attend Ekka. To assist schools in being able to provide adequate care for these students, the RNA will admit carers free of charge as required by student's needs (up to a maximum of one carer per child). Ekka ticket prices to be confirmed when ticket sales commence in June 2010. Watch the Ekka Website for details on group bookings.
