

Ekka Magic: Mature Tastes

A suggested itinerary for your day at Ekka. See the very best that the country has to offer, at a relaxed pace
to suit you.

On entry

Collect your Sunday Mail Great Food Guide

Location: At the gate

10.30am

Coffee and scrumptious treats

Start the day at the Woolworths Fresh Food Pavilion with a Giancarlo Coffee or Madura Tea from the Royal Queensland Deli ($3), with a baked goodie or two from the French Absynthe Bakery or the Cupcake Parlour or, for traditional fare, you simply can't go past the Country Womens Association (CWA).

Location: Woolworths Fresh Food Pavilion. The CWA is located under the John McDonald Stand.

11.45am

Fine Arts

Marvel at the skill that goes into Queensland's best exhibits of cooking, cake decorating, painting, needlework, craft and more.

Location: The Auditorium

12 noon

Education on Show

What does our next generation have to say? You'll get a special insight from the student exhibits, which include artworks, essays and more from the best young minds in Queensland. Grab a Copy of the Ekka Courier while you're there: it's our very own newspaper, produced by the budding young journalists in residence at Ekka.

Location: IKEA Education On Show Pavilion

12.30pm

Garden Exhibits

Take a stroll through the lush horticultural displays before exploring a special exhibit on Brisbane's unique backyard culture. See how rotary clotheslines, veggie patches and chooks are blending with new ideas like a fresh herb BBQ and breeding your own silver perch in a pond.

Location:
SignatureBrisbane
Backyard Flower
and Garden
Pavilion

1.00pm

The Cotton and Wool Parades presented by The Courier-Mail

Get an eye-opening tour of contemporary fashion as our leading local designers reveal their latest creations on the catwalk. George Wu, Daniel Alexander Couture, Tengdahl, Darb Bridal Couture – and many more – take to the runway with QUT's latest crop of fashion students.

Location: The Auditorium

1.30pm

Lunch in the Woolworths Fresh Food Pavilion

Over 80 vendors offer everything from healthy salad rolls to yogurt to wood fired pizzas to the infamous $2 Coon Cheese Toastie.

Location: Woolworths Fresh Food Pavilion

2.00pm

Gourmet Cooking Demonstration

Grab a coffee on the way and join foodies Alison Alexander and Peter Howard as they demonstrate how to create your own culinary masterpiece from the very best of Queensland produce.

Location: Woolworths Fresh Food Pavilion

2.30pm

Royal Queensland Show Competitions

Roam the animal pavilions or take a break in the ENERGEX Community Arena for a glimpse of the best of Queensland agriculture, from prize winning bulls to angora goats. It's the perfect chance to say g'day to a real farmer and hear more about life in the bush.

Location: Animal Pavilions and the ENERGEX Community Arena

3.30pm

Strawberry Sundae Time

Don't miss out on the iconic Nestle Peters Ekka treat. So refreshing!

Location: Strawberry Square next to the Channel Nine Broadcast Centre

3.35pm

Channel Nine Broadcast Centre

Finish the day with an insiders' look at a state-of-the-art television studio. Which Channel Nine celebrity might you bump into?

Location: Next to Strawberry Square