

The judges have decided!
NOVA 106.9'S ROCK SCHOOL
Top 6 bands

After a night of hard core rock and unbelievable talent, 6 bands from Brisbane schools have made it through to the Nova 106.9 Rock School Finals.....once again the judges were torn and couldn't cull the field down to only 5.

Now all 6 bands have a chance at winning $10 000 as well as opening for The Butterfly Effect next Saturday night at The Ekka.

The performance last night at Nova 106.9's Live and Loud Stage saw 15 bands rock off for a chance at making through to the final stage. The best 6 school bands were announced at the conclusion of the evening, they are:

- 1. In Jacks Honour (Nudgee College)
- 2. Livewire (Windaroo State High School)
- 3. The Greenslopes (Cavendish State High School)
- 4. Z'Fuse (Carmel College)
- 5. Adrenalin Addiction (Redeemer Lutheran College)
- 6. The Washboard Society (Cleveland State High School)

.....now leaving the rest up to Brisbane!

The Brisbane public can vote for their favourite band, from now. All 6 bands will then be invited back to play in a LIVE Simulcast with the Nova 19's! The winner of Rock School 2007 will be announced by 10pm taking away with the $10,000!

The winning band will have a couple of days to polish up their own set of songs ready for their own gig at EKKA, August 18 as the opening act for Expatriate and The Butterfly Effect in the final night of Nova's Live & Loud Concert Series for Ekka 2007.

To find out more about the finalists, listen to Michelle and Smallzy from the Nova 19's this week from 7pm.

For further details:
Dee Curtis
Promotions Manager – Nova 106.9
0417 428 109 / dcurtis@dmgradio.com.au
Monday August 13, 2007