FREE EKKA EVENT IN THE BRISBANE CBD THIS WEEKEND

EkkA fans can get a taste of the excitement before the big event starts next month with My Mini EkkA in the Brisbane CBD today.

My Mini EkkA will bring the vibrant atmosphere of the EkkA to Reddacliff Place in Brisbane's CBD today (Saturday 19 July). The RNA carnival will feature a fantastic line-up of entertainment, free activities for young and old, and fun competitions.

RNA Chief Executive Jonathan Tunny said the family friendly event was a great way to sample the upcoming EkkA excitement.

"My Mini EkkA is an ideal way to spend a Saturday in the city with family and friends, and to get a taste of what EkkA 2008 is all about," Mr Tunny said.

"There will be loads of free entertainment right in the heart of the city and with only 18 sleeps to go until the EkkA, both adults and children have the perfect opportunity to preview some of the action that is yet to come."

A highlight of My Mini EkkA will be the Ourbrisbane.com Ferris Wheel. The Ourbrisbane.com Ferris Wheel will operate throughout the day and admission is free.

Also look out for performances from The Caboolture Cobra Cheerleaders, Bai Rui Taikwon-Do and Shane Maxwell, the RNA Honorary Council Steward for Woodchop.

Activities will include the Sunny Queen Egg and Spoon Races, the EkkA Wall of Wonder and a variety of roving mascots. There will also be some great prizes and merchandise available.
